William F. Krake President, Welsh Construction

Bill Krake manages operations for Welsh Construction in the Twin Cities and nationally. He oversees a staff of 60 professionals and is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the company. Bill's primary role is to understand the changing needs of our customers and to build and guide a strong team that provides exceptional service and delivers results.

Bill's leadership and commitment to quality results in projects that are completed on time and on budget. Bill oversees a highly skilled, dedicated staff that includes project managers, superintendents, carpenters, plumbers and electricians. As a full service real estate company, Welsh Construction provides a complete scope of services in all areas of office, industrial, manufacturing, retail, multi-family and investment real estate.

Throughout his decade long career in commercial construction, Bill has been responsible for the oversight of major developments throughout the Upper Midwest. As President of CB Richard Ellis Construction, Bill negotiated and managed multiple million dollar projects and a staff of construction professionals. Prior to CB Richard Ellis, Bill spent 12 years with Ryan Companies as a Project Manager and Division Manager. During his tenure, Bill directed a variety of projects including the renovation of Toro Companies' world headquarters in Bloomington and the extensive renovation of the offices of Dorsey & Whitney law firm.
